Prof. Robert Solow (Nobel Laureate 1987) with the participants of the I.S.E.O Summerschool 2008

I.S.E.O INTERNATIONAL SUMMERSCHOOL

The summer school aims at bringing together a large number of graduate students coming from the most important European and American universities to improve their knowledge in economics. Classes will be held by Nobel Laureates for economic sciences and notable American and European instructors.

The I.S.E.O. Summer School introduces to some of the principles of international economy, investigating the role of America and Europe in the international economic scenario. It focuses on growth, on the strategies and instruments of monetary policy, on the structure and mechanisms of the financial sector, with a particular focus on the welfare state and unemployment. The course has a comparative perspective, therefore every subject compares the US and European economies. Every lesson includes a theoretical lecture and a debate on the discussed topics and participants will receive the relevant documentation.

Classes take place in a hotel conference center in Iseo, Brescia (Northern Italy).

The official language of the course is English.

During the week, students will familiarize with the Italian culture and language. At the end of the course students will also receive a frequency certificate.

APPLICATION CONDITIONS AND DEADLINE

Young graduates (Master and Phd) will be selected. Criteria for admission to the Summer School are based on curriculum vitae and students preparation to participate in advanced studies on the subject. The admission committee looks for mature, academically motivated students who demonstrate potential for success in a college environment.

In order to apply, students have to fill in an application form downloadable from the website www.istiseo.org.

The application form should be sent via email together with a personal cv by 25 April 2009 to the Summer School Secretariat: summerschool@istiseo.org. Early application is highly encouraged since enrolment is limited.

The fee amounts to € 2.200,00 and shall have to be paid by 20 May 2009. The fee includes: the course and the documentation, full boarding staying in a four star hotel, visits and local transportation. Personal expenses and any other expense not expressly stated are not included. Accommodation will be in double or triple room.

SCHOLARSHIPS

I.S.E.O Institute awards some students with scholarships amounting to € 1,500.00. Therefore awarded students shall have to pay just the remaining € 700,00. Every student can apply for the scholarship. The choice of awarded students is taken by a special committee which judge the cv and profile of each enrolled student and take into consideration also the motivation to participate to the course.
